

List of Club Members.

The Kentucky Club, organized last week, is coming right to the front with a big membership. As heretofore stated, this organization "kills two birds with one stone," since it covers both the commercial and social features, and should be a helpful institution.

The list of membership up-to-date, is as follows:

A. M. Tyler,
C. P. Stumpe,
H. H. Hale, Jr.,
A. O. Caruthers,

Next week is Corset week at this store

BEGINNING MONDAY—

and continuing through the week, we will have a special display of the new spring models in Warner's Corsets.

This showing will only last through the week and we invite you to visit our corset department one day at least.

It will be to your advantage to see the new models whether you wish to purchase or not.

Bold Thief Caught.

Hickman's epidemic of house-breaking came to a sudden end Thursday night, when officers Wright and Hamby collared one Jim Williams (Halye) who was beating a hasty retreat from the home of Henry Sanger, where he was preparing to make one of his nocturnal visits when discovered.

The negro was seen in Mr. Sanger's yard by Swayne Walker and two young ladies. They informed Mr. Sanger and he telephoned for the officers. The negro knew what was up and started to town, meeting the officers near the ice factory. He denied, of course, that he was the man, and all that; but after being given the "third degree," he made a clean breast of the whole thing. To be sure that he was not scared into a confession for bodily protection, the officers made him take them to each house he said he had broken into and show them how he entered. He went to the homes of Ernest Johnson, S. M. Naffeb, E. R. Ellison, W. H. Baltzer, and B. G. Hale. He stated he made two visits at both S. M. Naffeb's and W. H. Baltzer's, the manner in which he said he gained entrance to each place coincided with the reports given out by those who had had their homes broken into. B. G. Hale's family was unaware that he had even been in their house, but he produced some article he had stolen there as evidence, together with others gotten at other places.

The negro waived examination Saturday, and was placed in jail to await the May term of court.

Williams has been in trouble before. He spent six months in jail a few years ago for breaking into the home of Dan Meacham, and only escaped the pen by the pretext that he did not break into the house, but that the wind blew the door open.

Later he broke into the residence of Berry Stubbs, and got two years in the penitentiary for that offense. A short time after his release, D. B. Wilson had a smoke house robbed, and suspected Williams. He was arrested but he could not be proven guilty. Among other things he confessed to Thursday night, was the smoke-house job.

The negro must answer to four charges. It is our understanding that under the present law he can be sent up for life as a third conviction permits such a sentence.

At any rate, we want to get him away for all time.

The population of Union City, according to the recent census is 4,389. Union City is third largest city in West Tennessee, Memphis coming first and Jackson second. Our neighbor's growth is no surprise at all; she is blessed with the same sunshine and showers—fair ladies—fast horses—good whiskey and hustling business men as Hickman, and her rapid growth and prosperity were inevitable. Scientists have about agreed that Fulton and Obion counties is the place referred to in Genesis as the first home of Adam and Eve. Selah!

Ersie Price has moved from Fulton to Hickman, where he has a position with the Hickman Ice & Coal Co.

A New Madrid county (Mo.) farmer experimented with 33 acres of sunflowers last season, and after losing about a third of his crop owing to bad weather, he harvested and shipped out 27,676 pounds of seed, which he sold for $1,103. He says he paid out but $8 for help, hence his crop netted him $80 per acre, less the rent paid.

Enjoyable Outing.
We meet our friend who has been spending two weeks at the resort famed for its scenery and outdoor attractions.
"Have a good time?" we ask.
"Great," he replies.
"They say up there by the lake is a pleasant place for a vacation."
"It certainly is. Why, the night clerk at that hotel is the best partner at bridge I ever found."

Some of Them Are.
"I hear that your son has invented an air ship," says the friend.
"Not an air ship," explains the proud mother. "It is one of these incorrigible balloons."

Condensed Report of the Condition of THE HICKMAN BANK

at the close of business on Feb. 15, 1911, compared with a report of the condition of the same institution which was made at the close of business on Dec. 15, 1910. Considering the fact that the report of Dec. 15, 1910, was the best report ever published by the HICKMAN BANK, we respectfully call your attention to the GAIN of over $44,000.00 in deposits which this bank has made in the past two months, making its total deposits over $207,000.00. This not only shows the result of the satisfactory service given by this institution but shows that HICKMAN KENTUCKY is one of the fastest growing towns of its size in this section of the Country. Notwithstanding the above remarkable growth we are still looking for new business and are amply prepared to take care of same. When in need of a banking accommodation, or contemplating a change, or would appreciate a call.

RISE OF MORGAN DYNASTY

Foundation of Fortune Laid by Ancestor Who Fought in Washington's Army.

Most of our wealthy men started in small ways. Carnegie was a messenger boy. Rockefeller tramped the streets to get a petty clerical job. H. H. Rogers and Russell Sage were grocer's clerks. Harriman was a broker's office boy. James J. Hill was a section hand, or something like that. But four generations of the Morgans have been born in the purple, so to speak. The Morgan dynasty runs back to the days of the American revolution. Joseph Morgan, after fighting in Washington's army, proceeded to lay the fortune of the house. It did not take him long to rise to the control of the chief transportation lines in Connecticut. They were nothing but stage lines, but they were worth controlling just the same. Later on he figured as one of the capitalists of the Aetna Fire Insurance company of Hartford. His grandson is J. Pierpont Morgan, Sr., and young J. P. is of course, his great-grandson.

Of all the multimillionaires of our day, Morgan the elder remains the most inscrutable. All the others, Rockefeller, Harriman, Rogers and the rest have at one time or another thawed out in the presence of the newspaper and magazine men. Morgan has never thawed out. His personality is as far removed from public scrutiny now as it was when he was the center of the whirlwind contest with Jay Gould forty years ago.—Current Literature.

HE BROKE THE ENGAGEMENT

Cruel Misunderstanding Disrupts Matrimonial Plans of Count and Chicago Girl.

The sudden death in New York of Mr. Clifton Robinson, "the traction king," was being discussed in a New York club.

"Sir Clifton Robinson," said a New York man, "built miles and miles of street railways in this country. He liked this country. He especially liked our young men."

"I once heard him say that our young men were not mercenary—that it was practically unknown for an American young man to marry for money. But a young foreigner, he declared, would marry his grandmother if there was a hundred a year in it."

"A Chicago woman on a liner, he said, once remarked:

"Yes, Mabel was engaged to be married to a handsome young count she met in Budapest last summer; but there was a cruel misunderstanding."

"Indeed, how was that?" asked another woman.

"The count," was the reply, "understood her father was a multimillionaire."

Walter Scott, a young man a few miles north of Mayfield, was given an examining trial Wednesday before Judge Monroe on the charge of being responsible for the spreading of smallpox at that place and was held to the March grand jury under a bond of $200.

A party of capitalists have leased the Arcadia hotel property at Dawson Springs, Ky., and proposes to develop the property, and if that be rapidly determined upon $250,000 will be expended in the erection of a modern hotel on the beautiful hill in the park just back of the present hotel. For thirty years the Arcadia property, which includes an eight-acre park, has been owned and operated by the Holmans at a handsome

If fewer young men commence life financially where their fathers left off there would be fewer to end life where their fathers began—nothing. A spoiled education and well high unlimited money have been the undoing of many a young man, who, if conditions had been reversed, would have made a splendid success in life.

The enterprising citizens of Ridgeley, Lake county, have made up a stock company of $2,000 to operate a newspaper there. D. J. Saunders, of Purpaur, Tenn., will be editor and manager.

Blame it all—corset coats and tight trousers are said to be the coming fashion for men. First thing we

Oddfellowship.

The Independent Order of Odd Fellows is a noble institution—one of the best fraternal organizations in existence. It is doing a work which is much needed among men today. It is not a religious nor a political organization. It has no creed save the common Fatherhood of God, the Universal Brotherhood of Man, a circum-spect life and true Charity. What more creed does it need? Friendship, Love and Truth being the links of the chain which binds all TRUE Odd Fellows together, it is no wonder that the order is prospering.

She is like a great tree planted in the soil of nepotism and association whose roots are the ties of Friendship, whose trunk and branches are Love, whose leaves and blossoms are Truth, and whose fruit is Charity. These virtues are progressive and this is the natural order of them, for men must have social intercourse in order to form the ties of Friendship. Sociability, therefore, is the underlying principle of our order. Sociability is the soil that nourishes the ties of Friendship. As Love cannot be bestowed upon an unknown object, Sociability and Friendship are the foundations of Love. As Truth is the child of Love, so Love must precede Truth. Truth is the crowning virtue of man's preparation for usefulness. The tree may have an abundance of leaves and blossoms and yet bear no fruit, yet these are necessary to the bearing of fruit. Therefore, when a man has attained to the virtues of Friendship, Love and Truth he is only prepared for usefulness. It is only by the union and co-operation of Love and Truth that the fruit—true Charity—is produced. Sociability, Friendship, Love and Truth are the means and Charity is the end, of true Odd Fellowship.

The beautiful lessons taught in our degrees are solemn and impressive and are given in such a way that they are indelibly written upon the tablets of the attentive heart.

Agreeably to the methods of our divine Teacher, the Truths of Odd Fellowship are conveyed in the universal language of symbolism. Our doors are open to all men who desire to live justly and charitably, but closed to the selfish, the unjust, the uncharitable, the idle and the curious.

W. G. STOCKTON, Chaplain.

It is reported that J. R. Bryant, of Hickman, in the last three weeks, has bought 100,000 bushels of corn on the river, above New Madrid.—New Madrid Record.

The dear old dame, Madam Humor, says that the L. C. Railroad is now figuring on entering Hickman via Fulton. There may be some merit in the report, as Hickman is a logical point in the shortening of some of their lines. There seems to be an irresistible temptation to railroads and other big concerns to get into this city—and its suburbs.
Ellison Bros., who have one of the most up-to-date stores in the state, have just made another big improvement in their business. They have installed two cold storage show cases in which they will display their perishable goods. One of these cases is about ten feet in length by seven feet high, with seven air tight compartments or receptacles. On the hot days, butter and other things on display in this case will be next to frozen. This is a big improvement over the old methods, and one that should appeal especially to the housewife.
Mrs. Ernest Johnson entertained very charmingly Tuesday at a Washington birthday party at her home on Troy avenue. Punch was served by Misses Mary Maddox and Miriam Linton. A salad course was also served. Those present were the following: Mesdames W. A. Johnston, C. H. Travis, R. H. Johnson, Cne Threlkohl, H. E. Prather, W. H. Baltzer, E. H. Prather, T. T. Swayne, S. M. Hubbard, C. S. Driver, B. G. Hale, L. A. Stone, S. L. Dodds, B. T. Davis, S. D. Luten, C. G. Schlenker, J. C. Sexton, F. S. Moore, H. M. Isler, J. T. Stephens, A. E. Kennedy, D. B. Wilson, Henry Sanger, J. A. Thompson, Carl Schmidt, J. C. Ellison, E. H. Ellison, Ben Hertweck, Gus Moore, J. O. Stubbs, J. H. Russell, T. A. Ledford, C. H. Moore, P. H. Curlin, W. L. Helm, R. L. Louisville.—Delaware will have a highway the entire length of the state, 103 miles. This was assured when it was announced authoritatively that Coleman du Pont, formerly of Louisville, multimillionaire, president of the du Pont Powder Co., cousin of Senator du Pont, had offered to advance $1,000,000 for the construction of the highway. He wants it to be 100 feet in width.
ON A LESSER CHARGE.
Campton.—Father and John Chair, in jail here on the charge of killing their brother, William, a deputy sheriff of this county, at Lee City, were given an examining trial and the charge of murder was dismissed, but they were held for their appearance at the May term of court to answer the charge of manslaughter. They assert that the killing was accidental.
QUARREL ENDS FATALY.
Somerset.—L. H. Brogram, who was shot by Jay Cooper, died in the city hospital. The shooting was the result of a quarrel over a pool game in which the two men were engaged. Brogram was a machinist and was very popular. Before he died he asked that Cooper be not prosecuted as he was to blame for the trouble.
Hunter's Buttons.—August Baker, near here, lost two valuable horses, the animals fighting to the death. One died and the other had to be killed. The animals valued at $500 had been turned loose in a pasture.
Richmond.—G. B. Portwood, a farmer near Brassfield, who left for Irvine several days ago, has not been located yet. His disappearance is a deep mystery.

Lexington.—Prof. M. A. ## GRAND JURY HEAD IS ILL

WOODYARD'S ILLNESS SERIOUS IF NOT DANGEROUS.

Man Who Has Been Moving Spirit of Investigation Laid Up at Home in Ridge Farm.

Danville, Ill., Feb. 21.—Isaac Woodyard, foreman of the grand jury of Vermilion county, is ill at his home in Ridge Farm and is not able to serve with his co-workers, and probably not again during the session of the body. His physician said that he was suffering from the grip and was in a serious, if not dangerous, condition.

Woodyard became ill shortly after the grand jury adjourned Friday afternoon. Saturday his condition grew worse and Sunday it was thought for a time that he could not live. He rallied later and became stronger.

When the grand jury met at 1:30 o'clock it proceeded to elect a new foreman and continue its duties.

Woodyard has been the guiding spirit in the investigation. He did a greater part of the examination of the witnesses, and it was he who fought off outside influences when an effort was made to block the inquiry.

RAILROADS ARE REBUKED

Commerce Commission Orders Contract, Abrogating Act to Regulate Commerce, Disregarded.

Washington, Feb. 21.—Railroads were "put in their place" by the interstate-commerce commission. The rebuke was administered in a decision ordering the Pennsylvania and other railroads to deliver shipments of live stock on the side tracks of a Baltimore firm, despite the fact that a private contract, drawn up by the carriers, specified that the cars should be delivered at the Baltimore stock yards.

"Carriers should not make contracts which abrogate the act to regulate commerce," declared the commission.

CITY HELD IN CONTEMPT

Officials of Clay Center, Kas., Made to Pay Costs for Tearing Down Poles and Wires.

Washington, Feb. 21.—The supreme court held practically every member of the city government of Clay Center, Kas., guilty of contempt of court, in their action in cutting down the poles and wires of the Clay Center Light and Power company in November, 1910.

The court, however, decided not to punish the offenders more than requiring them to pay all cost in the suit.

BURNING LIQUOR KILLS

German Farmer Meets Death in Peculiar Form While Riding in His Own Buggy.

Eldorado, Ia., Feb. 21.—Robert Pinski, aged 45, a German farmer living here, was burned to death under peculiar circumstances. He was returning home in a buggy, when a bottle of alcohol became ignited, setting fire to his clothing. Neighbors saw the man and buggy in flames, but when they reached his side, they found he had been roasted to death.

Fire Cost Seven Lives.

Sutton, W. Va., Feb. 21.—Seven persons lost their lives in a fire which destroyed the home of J. D. Hardin in this city. Only Mr. Hardin escaped, the six remaining members of his family and a little girl, who made her home with the Hardins, perishing. The fire was caused by a natural gas grate.

Steamship Arrives on Fire.

Newport News, Va., Feb. 21.—The steamship Sloterdyk of the Holland-American line arrived here from Rotterdam with the cargo in her forward hold on fire. Tugs and fire engines extinguished the flames.

President Hears Eva Booth.

Washington, Feb. 21.—The president and Mrs. Taft, as well as many members of the diplomatic corps, heard Commander Miss Eva Booth of the Salvation Army speak here.

Revival At Chapel.

A big revival meeting began at the Chapel in West Hickman, Monday night. Rev. Walter Jones is being assisted by Rev. Harry G. Ryan, of near Nashville, who is preaching some excellent sermons, and the attendance has been good. Rev. Ryan is a brother of John Ryan, a citizen of this place until a few months ago. Everybody has a cordial invitation to attend regardless of church affiliations.

EARTHQUAKE RUINS HOMES IN TURKEY

SEVERAL MOSQUES INCLUDED IN DAMAGE—SOME LIVES REPORTED LOST.

ASK GOVERNMENT FOR AID

Violent Disturbances Are Also Experienced in Provinces of Central Italy—People in Panic as Chimneys Fall.

Constantinople, Feb. 21.—A violent earthquake was experienced at Monastir and elsewhere throughout the vilayet of Monastir.

There was some loss of life. Several mosques and houses were demolished.

The population is camping out and suffering intensely with the cold. The authorities have appealed to the government for 300 tents and relief funds. Monastir Important City.

Monastir is a town of European Turkey, capital of the vilayet of Monastir, in Macedonia, 85 miles northwest of Saloniki. It is an important military center and has a large trade in wheat and tobacco, besides having manufacturing of gold and silver ware and carpets. The population, which is estimated at 45,000, is a medley of all the nationalities to be found in Macedonia, the Christians numbering half of the total.

Earthquake Damage in Italy.

Rome, Feb. 21.—An earthquake which from its violence must have been very destructive, shook central Italy. The provinces of Emilia, the Marches and Tuscany were the greatest sufferers.

Several buildings were damaged at Forlì and Casena. One occupied house at Casena collapsed and many chimneys fell. A child's shoulder and a man's arm were broken.

A wild panic seized the people. Many were attending mass. They rushed out of the churches, and several were thrown down and crushed or bruised. The shock was less violent, though considerable elsewhere.

PUT END TO FILIBUSTER

Representatives, by Heavy Majority, Vote to Suspend Rules for Remainder of Session.

Washington, Feb. 21.—By a vote of 176 to 43, the house voted to suspend the rules and make the remaining days of the session suspensory days. This rule was reported by the house rules committee to terminate the filibuster started by Representative Mann of Illinois.

The filibuster in the house, originally started by Representative Mann of Illinois, was continued when the house met at 10 o'clock in the morning. Despite the long filibuster on the omnibus war claims bill the attendance was fairly good, but Representative Bennett of New York made the point of no quorum and a roll call was ordered.

During the interim since the house was last in session the leaders on both sides of the house tried to agree on a program by which the omnibus claims bill could be put through the house and sent to the senate.

SLAIN FOR KILLING DOG

Illinois Mine Foreman Is Trampled to Death and Four Men Are Held as Suspects.

Centralia, Ill., Feb. 21.—Revenge for shooting a dog is said by the police to have been the cause of the killing of Joe Dorosinski, 30 years old, who was trampled to death by four men in his home.

Four men, giving their names as Frank Berzner, John Dominick, John Caracoz and Joe Seakvinski, have been arrested. They deny knowledge of the killing. Dorosinski was a foreman in the South mine.

Mr. Ward, the furniture repair man is in town this week. He can rebuild your old furniture and make it look as nice as new at a very small cost. Over Prigue, Helm & Co.

Chairman's Call.

The first legislative Democratic Committee, composed of members of Fulton and Hickman counties' Democratic Committees, is hereby called to meet in the city of Columbus, Ky., Monday, Feb. 27, at 10 a. m., for the purpose of designating a time for nominating candidates to represent Fulton and Hickman counties in the lower house of the next General Assembly of Kentucky.

(Signed) MOTT AYERS, Chairman First Legislative Democratic Committee of Kentucky.

Perfumery.—Helm & Ellison.

The above statement shows amount that have actually been paid, but does not include vouchers issued and not paid.

The foregoing statement shows a balance in the Treasury of $205.00. During the year $2150 was loaned out of the Water & Light Bond Account secured by first mortgage on improved real estate, thereby increasing the fund with which to meet the payment of the Water & Light Bonds to $6350.

The only outstanding City Hall Bonds are the five bonds redeemed with the E. Case Memorial Fund.

There is a balance of the River Bank Bonds outstanding, amounting to $500 or $600, which is being reduced annually.

The bonded indebtedness of the City, other than that heretofore mentioned, is the $3000 30-year water and light bonds, and upon which interest has been paid promptly, and as above shown there has been $4650 to be applied on the payment of these bonds when due, Sep. 1, 1922; and there is also a balance in the Treasury to this account of $245.08, which is more than enough with which to pay the semi-annual interest due on the bonds, March 1st, next.

The other indebtedness of the city, with the exception of a few small outstanding accounts, is as follows: Note to H. Buchanan for $1000; note to Hickman Bank for $1400; and note to Farmers & Merchants Bank for $500, upon all of which interest has been paid.

Respectfully submitted,

The Clerk filed a statement of the financial affairs of the City for the year 1910.

On motion the above reports and statement were received, ordered filed and published.

On motion Council adjourned.

Attest: H. C. Helm, City Clerk.

Pres. Latta, of the C. M. & G., was here Friday looking after a preliminary survey for his road through the land recently bought by Jackson, Tenn., people. The latter were anxious to know about where the line would hit them should it be extended on to Metropolis in the future.

The death of Gen. Mencham, formerly of Fulton, late of San Francisco, is shrouded in mystery. The man died of wounds in his breast made by a knife. His wife has been arrested charged with committing the deed, but she claims that he committed suicide. The body was buried at Fulton this week.

Our loving sister, Erla Manley, died Feb. 10, at Bogota, Tenn., age 42 years. She leaves one brother, J. G. Dotson and nine children to mourn her loss. She was married to Dock Manley twenty-eight years ago. She leaves a host of friends and relatives in Kentucky. She was a good christian woman and always met her friends with a kind, cheery word. God bless the children and may they prepare to meet mother where parting is no more.—Brother and wife.

ELLISON BROS.

This section was in the grasp of a blizzard Sunday and Monday, accompanied by slight snow flurries. It is possible that much fruit has been killed. Many fruit trees of early variety were in full bloom several days before the cold snap.

L. P. Ellison went to Memphis yesterday, to visit his daughter, Mrs. Lucile Kilpatrick.

Miss Lucile Robbins, of New Madrid, Mo., is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. A. Faris.

Deputy Sheriff Tom Underwood arrested Jim Ammons, at Cayce, Saturday, on a charge of carrying concealed deadly weapons. He was released on a $100 bond.

Mayfield is spending considerable money boasting their town. It is about time we were lining up on the same proposition.

Alvis Ray, of near Mayfield, accidentally shot his leg almost off while hunting Tuesday.

Probably an Oversight.

In calling the legislative committee to meet at Columbus next Monday, it will be noticed that the call is for setting a time to nominate candidates for the legislature, but contains not a word about the manner in which the candidates are to be nominated.

Democrats in this county who want a primary should see their respective committeemen and make their wishes known. If you do not care what is done, make no effort to see him, as the matter will be attended to by some of the politicians in the way that they want, and you can rest assured that the smallest number possible will name the time and manner.

We have heard some favorable and some adverse criticism on the article in last week's paper under the caption "Much Confusion." The article was written with addition to act conservatively during the present fluctuations in real estate prices. We had in mind the lack of uniform prices where all conditions were equal. This in itself would indicate a discrepancy somewhere, naturally resulting in a confusion of real values. It is a compliment to the town and surrounding country to experience a rise in the tide of land values, and these values will stand at a much higher mark than ever before, but we still maintain that a halt can and will be reached, as is invariably the case anywhere else on earth. We have in mind a certain piece of Hickman property which is altogether overpriced. No man of business sense would buy it, because other property can be bought for less which is just as good, and he knows this would not pay 2 per cent on the purchase price, to say nothing of depreciation. It would be well for the town if it could be reasonably bought and improved. But no. The owner will not—others cannot. And our point is that this piece of property would be poor measure for the value of property around it because none of it would ever have a buyer. Result—The town is held back in improvements because of inflated prices and a confusion of values. And is anyone any better off in dollars and cents?

Everybody needs a box couch. I make them to your order.—Chas. Ward, over Fuqua, Helm & Co.

News From Cayce.

Herschel Bradley is visiting home folks.

Miss Ethel Edmiston is visiting in Hickman.

Mrs. Wood has been very sick but is improving.

The Ladies Aid met Monday afternoon with Mrs. Ardell Johnson.

Miss Grace Evans visited Miss Lilian Edmiston Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Corum visited Mr. and Mrs. George Pewitt Tuesday last.

Mrs. Barber is doing nicely with her school. She has about 48 pupils in attendance.

Miss Nelle Arrington received the cake as being the prettiest girl at the box supper.

The ladies of the Woodman Circle received over $38 on their box supper on the 14th.

Vester Freeman and sister visited Dr. and Mrs. Wright Tuesday night and attended the box supper.

Jim Allen and family, of East Prairie, Mo., have returned home after visiting his sons at this place.

The stork has been calling in our town. He visited the home of Wade Powell on Friday last and left a boy.

On Saturday he visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fowler and they received a 9-pound girl. On Monday he called at the home of Hugh Cruce and left a boy to brighten their home.

Mrs. D. H. Wilson was the hostess at a charming reception held at her home on Troy avenue Wednesday.

The invitations, refreshments, and souvenirs were emblematical of the day—Washington's birthday. The invitations were cardboard hatchets, printed in red ink, the ice cream in the shape of a hatchet blade with the picture of Washington and the American flag, and the souvenirs were cardboard hatchets. The hours were two to three, three to four and four to five, thirty guests being invited for each. Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. S. L. Dodds and Mrs. C. F. Hiltz were in the receiving line.

Mrs. Gus Moore was the charming hostess of a Washington's birthday hook party at her home Wednesday evening. Dainty colonial invitations were sent out and the whole affair was in keeping with the day. The menu was one of the most sumptuous that has ever been served on like occasions. Games were enjoyed until a late hour, and the guests were reluctant in bidding their hostess good night, and showered her with praises of their appreciation and enjoyment.

D. H. Lelbovitz, of Lewisport, Ky., is here this week trying to break into Hickman mercantile circles. He wants to put in a gent's furnishing store, but it is doubtful if he can find a building. Again we say we need more buildings. What's the use to encourage business men to locate here if no buildings can be had?

Boosters' Catechism.

—Perhaps this is Foolish.
—Perhaps it is Logically True—
—Some People there are, Who Will Believe Either.

This is written before the curtain is drawn and while the scene shifters are busy upon Hickman's stage, for we have finished another act in the drama of our history, and our audience, that is composed of the people who live within two or three hundred miles, is listening with the keenest sense of appreciative interest to the noises behind the curtain.

The rumble of the dynamite blast that hurled the stump from the new railroad right-of-way.

The bray of the levee mule, as his driver "knocks him through the collar."

The excited shout of the real estate man as he cries his bid for land.

The rattle of the surveyor's chains and the "stick, stuck" of the poleman, as they lay out the new belt line around town.

The whirr of wheels, the noise of the hammer, the click of wagon wheels—all this behind the curtain.

And now—when the curtain rises—how about your part, when the glad chorus uplifts itself.

Will you sing in tune or out of tune—are you a knocker or a booster?

You know that this next act depicts a boom—its coming whether you help or not. This is true because Hickman is Hickman.

Because of its geographical situation.

Because of its increased railroad facilities.

Because of its agricultural resources.

Because of its manufacturing industries.

But now, for Goodness, gracious Sake! don't let your jarring discordant note be a grime of satisfaction for what's going to happen anyhow.

Let's get together and make it as big as it ought to be.

Competition in every-day business life is a fine thing; it is the life of trade.

It makes us gentler, kinder, sweeter; yea, more liberal to the trader—but don't carry this every-day habit into the big show. Let's remember that FIRST we are for Hickman.

Hickman, Hickman! and that it is an inestimable privilege to be here at this history-making period to help our part—be it great or small.

In other words—let's get together.

Wallace Wright, gaming, fined $26.50.

Fred Nichols, gaming, fined $26.50.

Claude Traylor, gaming, fined $26.50.

Thurman Wilson, breach of peace, fined $16.50.

Walter Brown and A. J. McGhee were here this week from Jackson, with their engineers surveying and platting the 220 acres of ground recently purchased and which is located just east of town. This preliminary work is leading up to a final improvement which will make this one of the most beautiful spots in Kentucky. There is a general interrogation as to what this land will be used for. Next week the Conder will give full particulars as to their plans. We are sure it will contain some pleasant surprises. At any rate, there will be something doing in the east in a very short time.

Don't forget the cowboy moving pictures at the Lyric Monday night. Three reels of moving pictures that have never been on a machine. Mr. Hillon was fortunate in securing these pictures and the patrons of this popular playhouse will be delighted with them.

The Hickman Job Shop, rural telephone No. 26, is now open ready for business. Will be open until 8:30 every night. Second hand goods repaired, bought and sold. Country produce bought.

Will Give Boys Work.

At a meeting of the trustees of the Kentucky Normal and Industrial Institute 65 acres of land adjoining the Institute for Feeble Minded were leased to the board of control for one year. This property will be used as an experimental station, and for the purpose of giving employment to the boys living at the Institute.

Militia At Mayfield.

If the people of Mayfield will erect an armory in that city, as seems likely, the state will locate a company of the Kentucky national guard at that place. Application has been made for permission to organize a company at Mayfield, and it is probable that arrangements will be made by which an armory can be secured. A suitable man for captain of the company has been found.

To Conduct Institutes.

Prof. L. N. Taylor, of the state's superintendent of public instruction's office, is sending out letters to the school superintendents of the state notifying them that he is ready to conduct teachers' institutes in the various counties.

Company Organized.

Robert N. Krieger, assistant adjutant general, returned from the western part of the state and reported to Acting Adjutant E. B. Hesser that he had organized a company to erect a civilian armory at Letchfield and a company to lease a rifle range at Vano Grove.

Not For Ten Years.

Gus W. Melinger, of Covington, a former undertaker and liverman of that city, will not be permitted to engage in that business for 10 years in Covington or within 50 miles of that place. The court of appeals affirmed the judgment of the Kenton circuit court.

Mail Weighing.

H. M. Sweetman, chief clerk of the railway mail service, received notice that February 28 had been fixed as the date when the weighing of mail will be started in the third district on the roads under his supervision. He had appointed twenty-three extra men for this service and he will call them to gather one day next week for preliminary instructions.

Mrs. Holtman Wins.

The $12,000 suit for malicious prosecution instituted by Mrs. Louise Holtman against Jake H. Holtman, the noted starter, now in California, developed a victory for the woman in a ruling of the court of appeals when that body reversed the holding of the Jefferson circuit court that she could not maintain the action because she had been fined from breach of the peace. The appellate body held that if Mrs. Holtman could show that the prosecution of her in the criminal court was malicious and without probable cause, she can maintain the action notwithstanding the fine for breach of the peace.

A heavy cold in the lungs that was expected to cure itself has been the starting point in many cases of disease that ended fatally. The sensible course is to take frequent doses of HALLAD'S BOREHOLD SYRUP. It checks the progress of the disorder and assists nature to restore normal conditions. Price 25c, 50c and $1 a bottle. Lyric Theatre Saturday night

Will Johnson received a new hand organ Tuesday. No, nothing sensational in that item, but hold—there is a tragedy behind the shipment of every one of those doleful sounding instruments. Every hand organ indicates a pathetic story of misfortune—they follow in the wake of sorrow.

Its monotonous strains may be heard in every city in the land, and it means that some one has been lacerated for the battle of existence—for the joys of life. It is the main instrument in the orchestra playing before the stage of real tragedy. Misfortune has rung down the curtain on all pleasures and ambitions.

Only the memory of happy bygone days remains to feed the hungry soul of some mother's son, who must nevertheless ask alms of the headless throng. The future years can hold no promise to him—except in eternity. The gentleman is blind. For him the flowers bloom not again—the sun no longer shines—beauty and color can never again appeal to his sentiment—it is endless night. For years Will Johnson was gate-keeper for the Mangel Box Co., but his sight gradually failed until he could work no more. He fell out of the battling ranks of men—helpless. Coupled with this misfortune is the weight of years and the empty promise of youth.

Such is fate. He, poor man, must drink the drops from sorrow's cup—while his organ gives out its plaintive appeal to the stranger for the few pennies that sustain an unhappy life—a broken spirit.

"It Cured My Back"

"For twenty-nine years I have been at intervals a great sufferer from rheumatism. During that time, no telling how many gallons of the various kinds of liniments and oils I have used and with but little relief. Recently, I was confined to my bed helpless. I tried Sloan's Liniment and used it with such satisfactory results that I sent for two large bottles, and I have up to this time used about half a 50 cent bottle with splendid success."—JAMES HYDE, Beebe, White County, Ark.

Got Ease in Less Than Ten Minutes.

MR. JAMES E. ALEXANDER, of North Harpisswell, Mo., writes:—"I am a horse-shoer and subject to many strains in my back and hips which has brought on rheumatism in the sciatic nerve. I had it so bad one night when sitting in my chair, that I had to jump on my feet to get relief. I at once applied your to the affected part and in less than ten minutes it was perfectly easy. I think it is the best of all liniments."

Sloan's Liniment does not need any rubbing. It's a powerful penetrant. Try it for Rheumatism, Sciatica, Sprains, Chest Pains, and Sore Throat. It gives almost instant relief.

Price 25c, 50c, and $1.00 at All Dealers. Send for Sloan's Free Book on Diseases. Address

REVERIES

Bribed by Pocketbook.

Bribery of public officers is highly condemned by all honest men. The man who, holding public office, accepts bribe which influences his official conduct is properly denounced, as one contemporary puts it, as a traitor to his trust.

There is another bribery, however, more dangerous because more subtle for which the law provides no punishment and for which only the whip of public scorn can afford penalty. This bribery is by one's own pocket-book. We have some men in Hickman who would scorn the bribe offered by another but will accept without apparent misgiving bribery from their selves.

"It will hurt my business." This is the plea made by persons who are asked to take a stand for righteousness. It is a selfish plea, but it is more; it is a criminal plea. It is on the same low plane of bribery that public opinion condemns and the criminal law punishes.

The reformer meets the evidences of this subtle form of bribery when he seeks the support of those who place self above principle. "Don't quote me, it would hurt my business," is the reply to the newspaper reporter when some question of vital public concern is under discussion.

Conservation is often another name for cowardice. Silence is golden sometimes but gold is the most cowardly of things. There is no bribery more poisonous than the bribery of one's own pocketbook. Such bribery corrupts the very foundations of public and private morality.

It is desirable to make a living, but it is necessary to make a life.

An Ideal Home.

We hear a great deal these times about the ideal happy home, and men are not scarce who expect all the requisites for a happy home to come from one side of the house.

A woman may do her level best to make life and home happy for her husband and children, but if she is treated as a slave, and only given her board and clothing in payment for her services as mother, wife, cook, laundress, nurse girl, chambermaid, and housekeeper, is it any wonder that little or no happiness exists in that home? If a mother spoils her son by pampering and waiting on him all the years of his childhood and boyhood, and making him think that a man should always be waited on by a woman of his household, is it strange that he expects a wife to do the same, and that, in all likelihood, she either wears out in a few years from such service or else becomes bitter or disheartened. We are often told that in every true and ideal marriage both husband and wife must learn to hear and forbear. In every home where happiness exists, there must be perfect trust, confidence, and love between husband and wife. There are two kinds of sunshine in the world, and both quite necessary—the one which is caused by the sun's shining out doors, and the other by shining in our hearts. It is the loving deeds, the cheery, hopeful words and the kindly thoughtfulness that each member of the family shows toward the others that makes an ideal, happy home—a perfect heaven on earth.

Divorce is Common Today.

With every term of Fulton Circuit Court, we see divorces more frequent, not because men and women are more wicked, but because married life is made more difficult by the excitement and complexity and manifold strains of modern life, which render unhappy marriages more unendurable. A broad gap opens between the hot present and the dull quiet of other days, when the husband passed his day in a steady and continuous round of work, when no avenue in life but marriage opened before most women, and both men and women passed lives from which excitement, worry and the anxious rush of this day were absent. Any candid man who will reconstruct the life of sixty and eighty years ago will be convinced that, while that day had in it much of secret wickedness—as court and church records show—it had also conditions much less likely to prevent two people from leading quiet, uneventful and reasonably happy lives together.

Many now occupy back seats in the world who may occupy the front seats in the next.

If you are a twentieth century woman you are incapable of being idle and unambitious. Unless you have a definite aim in life you don't belong to this age even if you were born sometime during the last hundred years. It is the fashion to be earnest, to have an active brain and a loving heart. To be in touch with the times you must be connected with some of the great reforms; it may be temperance or missionary work. You may have a personal interest in one of the stupendous charities of the day; it is possible that woman's suffrage is claiming your attention. In any event you must be interested in something besides fashion and other follies, for women are coming to the front—may, are already there. Their feet are no longer in the slippery places, they are lending a hand to their less fortunate sisters. They extend it to all classes, from the woman who patters with patch work to the degraded devotee of Dacchus.

As we meet and talk with the friends we love, it will take no more time to tell them we appreciate them and that they have helped us than to speak of many things that will not be half so welcome to hear as these words. A certain Hickman banker has founded a successful business career on this policy—which shows there is both profit and pleasure in it.

These women are only a few of thousands of living witnesses of the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to cure female diseases. Not one of these women ever received compensation in any form for the use of their names in this advertisement—but are willing that we should refer to them because of the good they may do other suffering women to prove that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a reliable and honest medicine, and that the statements made in our advertisements regarding its merit are the truth and nothing but the truth.

COMMISSIONER'S SALE.

Fulton Circuit Court, Kentucky.
W. J. Hannon, Guardian &c, Plaintiff, against Steve Stabr &c, Defendant, Equity.

By virtue of a judgment and Order of Sale of Fulton Circuit Court, rendered at the January term thereof, 1911, in the above cause, for a division of the funds derived from the sale of the following lands, I shall proceed to offer for sale at the Court House door in Hickman, Ky., to the highest bidder at PUBLIC AUCTION, on the 13th day of March 1911, at Ten (10) o'clock a. m., or thereabout (being County Court day) upon a credit of twelve months, the following described property, to-wit:

The Courier's Weekly Sermon

By PASTOR RUSSELL

SUBJECT

AN OLD-FASHIONED REVIVAL

WANTED IN WALL STREET.

The Wall Street Journal's Appeal Considered by Pastor Russell.
Bishop Candler Free-ly Quoted.

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 19.—Quoting an extract from the Wall Street Journal Pastor Russell used it as his text in connection with Proverbs xlv, 30. The Journal not long since appended "for a revival of old-time religion, which took time to pray every morning and to attend the mid-week prayer-meeting." It claimed that such a revival would cleanse the country of filth, of graft and of greed, petty and big, of worship, of fine houses and big lands, and high offices and grand social functions.

Bishop Candler also noticed the Journal's appeal and Pastor Russell quoted him freely as follows:—

"We cannot get a revival of religion by seeking a revival of religion. No where in God's Word are men admonished to seek a religion or seek a revival of religion."

"There is our trouble; we have lost God! Men called preachers have explained away the Word of God, making it no longer a sure Word of prophecy, but an antique for the critics to analyze and discuss. The moral law has been lowered. The Ten Commandments have been reckoned as a piece of Moslem paganism applicable to the needs of ancient nomads in the wilderness, but having no more than a qualified bearing on the life of today. The Sermon on the Mount has been treated as 'an idyllic dream.' The lordship of Jesus Christ has been denied, while treacherous compliments have been poured out upon His name, as that of merely a great Teacher and noble martyr."

Difficulties in the Way, Says Pastor Russell.

The words of the Wall Street Journal respecting the need of the old-time religion are along proper lines. Bishop Candler sees already what I also have so frequently pointed out, namely, that the so-called New Theology, Higher Criticism and Evolution theories have so undermined faith that it would be folly to look for a return of the pious earnestness of the past, which was built upon a living faith, even though it was not the pure faith "once delivered unto the saints" (Jude 3).

Most Important Points.

It is useless for any to attempt to believe or to attempt to teach others that God is great, and just, and loving, while at the same time teaching that he prepared before the foundation of the world an immense torture chamber in which thousands of millions would be forced to spend eternity. How our forefathers could believe this and yet believe somehow or other that God is love we do not understand. It was their faith in God's love, and not their faith in eternal torment, which concentrated the power of God working in them for good, and which offset the errors of their creeds to a considerable degree.

What the world needs, and what first of all the Church needs, is to get distinctly straight in respect to the Almighty's character, and in respect to His purposes with His human creatures. As soon as that condition of mind shall have been reached there will be no need to pray or to ask for revivals of religion—they will follow irresistibly.

But what do we see opposing any such desirable development? We see two hundred thousand Protestant ministers and Sunday School superintendents working against such desirable results. We see about two-thirds of them advocating Higher Criticism—fidelity and the other one-third striving to hold the people in ignorance respecting the teachings of the Bible concerning man's future.

Church and World Standards.

During the "Dark Ages," the fact that the Church is a specially called, chosen, faithful class and only "a little flock" was seen and preached to some extent. But this lofty Church Standard was difficult of application to the world, and the world's hope under a different standard was not seen. It clarifies our minds greatly when we remember that the "elect" few are intended for God to be the world's instructors and leaders for and by, when the world will be granted an opportunity of rising from sin and death, not to be merely spectators, but an earthly possession of all that was lost to Adam's transgression and redeemed to the great Son of God.

After learning that the hell to which the world goes in death is the grave and that it is an unconscious condition, a "sleep," the next lesson is the resurrection of the dead. "Many that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake. . . . some to shame and last the punishment" (Daniel xii, 2). Man that fell asleep with experience and with righteousness and very different stages of holiness and salvation. When awakened they will receive the glory, honor and immortal life of the saintly Bride of Christ and to recipients of her loving care and blessing in proportion as they respond to the blessed promises of that time. As the resurrection work will progress and then decidedly rise from their position, their shame and contempt will be completely disappear and eventual perfection of human nature may be attained in the earth also attaining perfection as the Garden of the Lord.

Dallas Williams will leave in a short time for Stratford, Mo., to visit his brother, J. B. Williams.

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL.

Health is Worth Saving, and Some Hickman People Know How To Save It.

Many Hickman people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know those organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger when all diseases and aches and pains due to weak kidneys can be quickly and permanently cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is a Hickman citizen's recommendation.

A. J. Hinzler, East Hickman, Ky., says: "I cannot say too much in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills, as they had a beneficial effect upon my kidneys. I suffered for some years from attacks of kidney trouble and at times there was a dull ache across the small of my back, which made me miserable. A short time ago I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Helm & Ellison's Drug Store and through their use found entire relief."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
